A Short Parable

This is a story about four people, named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it but Nobody realised that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

What is the moral of this parable?

A photograph of a bright red heart floating on the surface of clear, light blue water. The heart is positioned on the left side of the frame. Concentric ripples emanate from the heart, spreading across the water's surface. The lighting is bright, creating highlights on the water's surface.
