4th March 2022

Dear Parent/Carer,

Parental Update 22

Another really busy week again which saw sporting success for our Year 9 rugby and our Year 11 footballers, whilst in school we had Ash Wednesday services, World Book Day (with some wonderful outfits from the English and Drama staff and some students, I didn't realise Diego Jota was such a literary influence). Years 7-10 continued their assessments, we facilitated vaccines for those who wanted them, held our Year 9 Options Evening and later today will give our Year 11 students their mock GCSE results in a mock results day.

Weekly Academic Focus: Extended Reading – VIPERS

Each week we have one form time that is extended to 30 mins to allow for whole class reading. Usually this involves an expert reader (teacher or confident student) reading aloud then can be followed by students offering to read. The class then stop and discuss what they have read based upon the VIPERs strategy:

Vocabulary – did you learn any new words? Could you use the new word in a sentence?

Infer – how do you think the character feels about what has happened in the section you have read today?

Predict – can you predict what might happen next in the novel?

Explain – explain what has happened in the if a member of your form was absent today, could you clearly explain the section you have read to them so they could keep up with reading next week?

Retrieve - can you find a quote to show how the character felt?

Summarise – can you condense what you have read today into just a sentence?

Ukraine

Last week I mentioned about supporting our young people when talking about the Russian invasion of Ukraine. We have now received further resources and guidance from the DfE to support parents and schools to discuss the issue with children, which can be found here.

Careers Information

As well as the regular careers bulletin, you or your child may be interested in the St Helens of the Future: Good Business Festival. We have been asked to share the following information about the event:

St Helens Borough is at the start of a truly transformational journey that will shape a future of exciting new opportunities. From the new Masterplans for St Helens and Earlestown town centres, Glass Futures – a world leading glass research facility, to the latest phase of Omega in St Helens Borough, through to the regionally important Parkside – these are projects that show St Helens is delivering positive growth for businesses.

You can perform miracles by touching the hearts of those entrusted to your care.

This growth is leading to new jobs, careers, apprenticeships and training to meet the new sector needs making St Helens Borough their home. So join us to find out more about the opportunities available at a one day open event, until 7pm, at The Totally Wicked Stadium on Thursday 10th March.

There will be a wide variety of businesses offering everything from live job vacancies to training opportunities to sign up to there and then. You can also get business advice and find out more about the regeneration of St Helens Borough.

Exhibitors include: St Helens Library Services, St Helens Chamber, St Helens VCA, Business Advocates, Ways to Work, Miller Developments, Muse Developments, with many more to be added. This will be a drop in event but you will need to book a free ticket for entry so please sign up today: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/st-helens-of-the-future-tickets-267482987817>

DLS READS!

DLS Reads!

Newsletter

Welcome back to the DLS Reads! newsletter about books and reading. It is an exciting time to enjoy reading at De La Salle with the reopening of the Library, the various book clubs we have and World Book Day approaching! So ignore the grey skies outside and brighten up your day with a good read. There are plenty of suggestions here and you could also check out the posters on the English corridor for suggestions for particular genres. Happy reading!

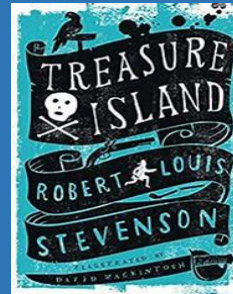

In the mood for romance? Here are some great books to swoon over this month.

TRY A CLASSIC!

Jim Hawkins is a young boy who lives at his parents' inn, the Admiral Benbow, near Bristol, England, in the eighteenth century. An old sea captain named Billy Bones dies in the inn after being presented with a Black Spot, or official pirate verdict of guilt or judgement. Jim is stirred to action by the Spot and its mysterious, accurate portent of Billy's death. Hastily, Jim and his mother unlock Billy's sea chest, finding a logbook and map inside. Jim realizes that the contents he has snatched from the sea chest must be valuable, so he takes one of the documents he has found to some local acquaintances, Dr. Livesey and Squire Trelawney. Excited, they recognize it as a map for a huge treasure that the infamous pirate Captain Flint has buried on a distant island.

Faced with treachery, pirates, mutiny and murder, will Jim and his companions find the gold and make their way back home? Suitable for ages 11+, this classic novel is a very accessible and exciting read.

Book Events in the Spring Term

Reading Mentors:

We are excited to launch the Reading Mentor programme. A group of year 10 pupils who love reading have been paired up with a group of year 7s to meet regularly and share a book. We have already met our partners and are getting to know them to find out what they enjoy doing and reading. This will help us to choose a book to read with them that they will find interesting. Not only would this hopefully encourage a love of books, but also help to improve their reading which is very important for their future.

Megha Thomas 10S

Form Time Reading

As part of a whole school focus on reading, each form group has started reading a shared novel together once a week during form time. The texts have been selected to appeal to students and address a wide range of themes that students have asked to have more knowledge about, such as diversity, acceptance and inclusion. Students report that they enjoy the opportunity to read together with their peers and form tutor, discussing the range of issues that the texts explore.

Year 7 will read: Mockingbird, Raven's Gate and Freak the Mighty

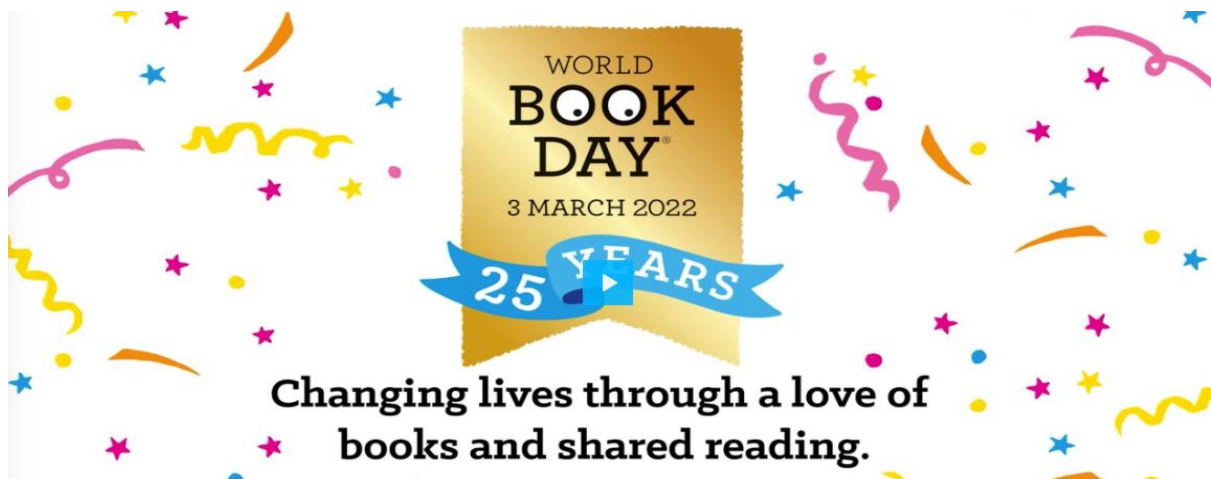

Year 8 will read: The Recruit, Class A and Ghost Boys

Year 9 will read: The London Eye Mystery, Face and My Sister Lives on the Mantelpiece

Year 10 will read: The Hate U Give, The Book Thief and Coraline

Year 11 will read a range of short stories such as Examination Day, The Lottery and The Open Window

World Book Day changes lives through a love of books and shared reading. Their mission is to promote reading for pleasure, offering every child and young person the opportunity to have a book of their own.

Reading for pleasure is the single biggest indicator of a child’s future success – more than their family circumstances, their parents’ educational background or their income. We want to see more children, particularly those from disadvantaged backgrounds, with a life-long habit of reading for pleasure and the improved life chances this brings them.

World Book Day was created by UNESCO on 23rd April 1995 as a worldwide celebration of books and reading. It is marked in over 100 countries around the globe.

The first World Book Day in the UK and Ireland took place in 1997 to encourage young people to discover the pleasure of reading.

As World Book Day founder, Baroness Gail Reebuck, recalls “We wanted to do something to reposition reading and our message is the same today as it was then – that reading is fun, relevant, accessible, exciting, and has the power to transform lives.”

This year is the 25th year there’s been a World Book Day, and on 3rd March 2022, children of all ages will come together to share the joy of reading for pleasure.

Spending just 10 minutes a day reading and sharing stories with children can make a crucial difference to their future success and it’s fun for all involved.

That’s why World Book Day continues to encourage children and young people to read for pleasure through its work with authors, illustrators, publishers, bookshops and libraries. Booksellers stock the special £1 books that can be purchased with the book vouchers available from school. These vouchers can also be redeemed against the cost of a full-price book or audiobook.
