

What is Revision Darts?

Revision Darts is a retrieval game to check pupils understanding of 20 of the main keywords or concepts or teachings within a unit of work.

Pupils colour code red, amber or green for their understanding on the dartboard, depending on how confidently they can answer the question.

Pupils can then see overall how much they know about a particular unit of work and pick out areas of weakness to work on.

What resources will i need?

Revision dart worksheet

Pen

Pencil

Coloured pencils (red, orange and green)

Class book or revision guide

How to play revision darts!

Ask your teacher for revision darts worksheets on the unit of work you are focusing on.

Answer each of the 20 questions as best as you can.

Colour each question number on the dart board:

Green - confident

Orange - not sure

Red - unsure

Check your answers using your class book or revision guide. The questions you have coloured orange or red are the topics you should be focusing your revision on to fill any gaps in your learning.

How do we create one?

Take a central topic e.g.
Islam

Create questions based on:

- Sub-topics e.g. prayer
- key terminology e.g. Salah

Using them effectively!

Refer back to them when revising for assessments. Create a list of the sub-topics or key terminology you need to focus your revision on.

Have a study partner or parent/guardian to test your knowledge.

Try to make your own/multiple versions so you can re-test

Keep them organised so you know what to refer to when revising for upcoming assessments or end of year assessments
